

15 June 1951

O/IC RESPONSIBILITY

The Office of Intelligence Coordination is responsible for:

a. Providing the coordination necessary in developing general requirements guidance for collection facilities within CIA and those in other agencies.

b. Assisting, where appropriate, in reconciling difficulties which develop in the course of handling ad hoc or spot requirements as provided for in Regulation 70, p. 13 (functional statement of the Office of Collection and Dissemination).